NEW INDUSTRIES LOCATED

Success of Corn Show and Other
Undertakings Praised—Four
Leaders in Farm Work

Recounting the accomplishments of the first year of its existence, the Rush County Boosters Committee Tuesday night reaffirmed its allegiance to Rushville and Rush county and prepared for even a more energetic effort to advance the interests of Rushville and Rush county during the forthcoming year.

The second annual banquet was held at the Social club and addresses regarding the successes of the committee's activities and plans for the new year were outlined.

Outstanding achievements of the city and county during the year were presented by various speakers as follows:

Locating three new industries in Rushville.

Winning the yellow corn championship of Indiana.

Winning the canning championship of the state.

Attracting new capital to be invested in Rush county land.

Organizing a boys' corn club of 125 members.

Distinction of holding the largest and best county corn show of the year (if not of all time) in Indiana.

Creating a new spirit in Rush county which has caused residents of the county to take stock of their resources.

Planting Rush county before the people of Indiana with an exhibit at the state fair, as the largest hog producing county in the nation.

Erecting large signs at edge of Rushville on principal highways.

Making possible the erection of 30 ornamental pedestal lights along the Memorial park boulevard, which will be done this summer.

"If the Boosters committee has accomplished half as much as I think it has, the organization has been well worth while," Hugh E. Mauzy, the new president of the organization, said in opening the after-dinner program. "It has been a pleasure to see many men give freely of their time to the enterprises in which we have been engaged. We need the same spirit on the part of more men."

"Nothing is outside the range of possibility if this group of men wants to go after it. No community accomplishes anything by marking time. Work and progress are synonymous.

"It would be a fine thing if we could submerge ourselves during the year and work for the common good. The challenge comes to us from the city, the county and neighboring cities that are going ahead. Shall we accept?"

B. F. Miller was given the most enthusiastic applause when he sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold," with Mrs. George Hogsett playing the piano accompaniment, and in response he sang two short boosting songs that pleased the crowd immensely.

Dr. J. B. Kinsinger, who had the subject, "Our Merchants," said that he wished to make it all inclusive, and he did by briefly reviewing the professional, manufacturing and retail interests of Rushville, paying each a warm compliment.

There are doctors in Rushville, he said, who are known not only locally, but throughout the state and nation, and Rushville lawyers will compare favorably with those of larger cities. Dentists, too, he recalled, have won distinction in their profession and all maintain a high standard.

Dr. Kinsinger pointed out that Rushville factories were among the best in the country and he especially alluded to the fact that they always keep their workmen employed. Rushville has one factory, he said, known all over the world, with a market in every country, and another that is the largest of its kind in the United States, if not the world. The factories have a payroll of over a half million dollars, the speaker asserted.

Dr. Kinsinger also praised Rushville merchants, calling attention to the fact that they buy high class merchandise and are most progressive. There are over 200 different classified businesses in Rushville, he said.

"Rushville has the name of being high-priced," he continued, "but a careful investigation will show the highest class goods here. Laymen can't judge the quality of goods and Rushville merchants are trying to educate their patrons to buy good goods because it is economy, not extravagance."

Dr. Kinsinger declared Rushville had some of the finest department stores, hardware stores, clothing stores and other retail establishments to be found in cities of this size. Rushville banking institutions had never lost a single dollar of a depositor's, he said.

"Some things business men must learn," Dr. Kinsinger continued. "They must be loyal to their home town and get acquainted with other merchants and their affairs. AWARDS MADE IN MUSIC CONTEST

Glenwood School Carries off Honors
in Both Grade and High School
Divisions

RICHLAND TOWNSHIP WINS

Three Teams Will Represent Rush
County in District Contest Here
Next Tuesday

Awards in the Music Memory contest for the county schools which participated here Tuesday in the annual contest, were announced today, with the Glenwood school carrying off honors in the grade and high school divisions, and the Richland township school, receiving first place in the rural division.

The three teams will represent Rush county in the district contest, which will be held here in the court house next Tuesday, and all county winners in the Sixth District will meet here for the contest, with these winners being eligible for state honors.

Five pupils represented each school team, with the three highest grades on each team being given in the complete summary as announced today. The general average of each team gave the standing of the school. In the high school division, Glenwood finished first, with a grade of 133, and Rushville finished second with 129 points. Carthage was third with 121. The perfect number of points for any team was based on 140, and several individuals in the county scored 140, but other team members pulled down the general average.

In the grammar grade contest, Glenwood scored a total of 132 2-3 points, and Gings was second in this with 132, being nosed out by only 2-3 of a point. Carthage was also a close third with 130 points. In this division Gings and Manilla tied for second place, requiring an elimination contest, resulting in favor of Gings.

In the rural division for one and two room schools, Richland won with 129 1-3 points, and Circleville finished second with 122 1-3 points. Freeman was third with 118 points.

The three high winners on each team that placed first second or third are as follow: Glenwood, Elizabeth Murphy, Mary Freeland and Joseph Douthitt; Rushville, Virginia Lucas, Wilma Hunt and Kathleen Hobbs; Carthage, Sheree Kyser, Ruby McGeorge and Clyde Wells. In the grammar grades, the winners Continued on Page Two

ASSESSING REAL ESTATE TEDIOUS

When Appraisal is Completed
Satte Board Experts to Have Mass
of Details

NEW RULES AND REGULATIONS

Appraisal Blanks Make it Necessary to Obtain Full Description of Property

Assessment of real estate this year, which is now well under way in Rush county, is the most tedious it has ever been for assessors and deputies, due to the rules and regulations that have been laid down by the state board of tax commissioners.

When the appraisal is completed, the state board expects to have a mass of details regarding every piece of real estate in the state of Indiana. The appraisal blanks supplied by the board make it necessary for the assessors to obtain a full description of the property appraised.

Included in this description is to be the size of the land, the material from which the improvements are made, the number of rooms in each house, the size of the room, the type of foundation, the kind of floor, whether or not the house is wired or plumbed and the type of the plumbing and wiring, the time the house was built, and last of all the value of the land and the improvements.

The assessments are to be made in greater detail this year than ever before, according to members of the board. The board expects to have every piece of property assessed at its real value and to have as much information as possible in order that each piece may be assessed at its fair value.

The total valuation of property for taxable purposes is expected to be increased as a result of this year's appraisements. Increases in the property values are expected in the larger cities.

The reappraisal of real estate was ordered for 1926 in an act of the state legislature and every four years thereafter. This was changed to 1925 in a bill which passed the legislature just adjourned.

The board has ordered the reappraisal for this year prior to the action of the legislature on sentiment chiefly from farmers that they were paying too much taxes because their farm values were appraised too highly.

CREATES A GOOD IMPRESSION

Evangelist Eddie Thomas Preaches
First Sermon at M. E. Church

At St. Paul's church last evening the evangelist, Eddie Thomas, held his first meeting in Rushville. He created a very favorable impression. He is an exceptionally fine singer and strong preacher of the gospel.

His text was John 7:28 "The Master is Come and Calletth for Thee." He described his own call to the evangelist work briefly and spoke at length and with great feeling of the call of Evan Roberts, the great Welsh evangelist. The climax of the sermon was in his vivid description of the call and the work of Billy Sunday. No newspaper report can do justice to his sermons, they must be heard. He preaches and sings each evening at 7:30 o'clock.

COUNCIL DECIDES TO EXTEND MAINS

Contracts for Material, Amounting to About $8,000, Will be Awarded
Thursday Night

OTHER BUSINESS AT MEETING

Street Commissioner Instructed to Improve Harrison Street—Park
Custodian Named

The city council met in regular session Tuesday night, and several business matters came before them, with the definite decision being reached to extend the water mains into the new territory north of Eleventh street, and contracts for the material, reaching about $8,000, will be awarded Thursday night at an adjourned session.

The bids for the materials were received at the last session of the council, and the different kinds of material and prices have been under consideration, and will be finally decided upon at the meeting Thursday. The extension will provide better water supply to the Park Furniture factory, Rushville Furniture factory and the Tompkins-Endres Furniture factory, as well as furnish water to residences not now served.

In addition to the extension, there will be included about a dozen fire hydrants, to provide better fire protection in the factory districts, with pumper hydrants being run west in Eleventh to a point near the Park furniture factory, and the line extended east toward the other factories.

The matter of preparing for the annual summer oiling of the streets, as provided in a levy by taxation, was taken up, and bids on road oil will be received at the next regular meeting, April 7. Not as much oil will be used this summer as in the past, and only those streets needing it, will be treated.

The matter of improving Harrison street was taken up, and the city street commissioner was asked to tear up the street, knocking off the bumps. The street has been neglected because of a paving project was in view, but as this has vanished the city will now start work and put in into shape. Three cars of stone were ordered for the street improvement.

Last night was the time set for receiving bids for the disposal of the fire bell tower, and the real estate upon which the tower is located. Only one bid was received, it being for $75 for the lot, and submitted by John P. Frazee, Jr., but the bid was regarded as too low, and rejected.

Sam Finney presented a petition asking for the city engineer to establish a grade in the alley at the rear of his place of business in Third street, because he is preparing to remodel a barn, and the engineer was ordered to place the necessary grade.

Property owners were again warned by the council to repair sidewalks in front of their property and the campaign started last fall will be followed up within a few weeks. The sidewalks that have been raised by three roots, or broken must be repaired by the property owners, and the street commissioner was instructed to begin his survey and serve notice on the property owners to make the repairs.

The council appointed B. F. Samp-

The promoters of the project believe that if $25,000 can be raised in this manner, the remainder of the financing can be accomplished and the gymnasium can be built during the coming summer.

Subscriptions will be payable one-fourth at a time and those who pledge money under this sort of an agreement will not be required to make a payment until the association is formed.

Subscription blanks containing the full agreement were being printed this afternoon and the effort to raise the required amount will be started immediately. The terms of the agreement are as follows:

RADIO TROUBLE TAKEN TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Supt. Mahin of Water and Light
Plant Reports Westinghouse Expert Blames I. & C. Line

EXPERT TO BE BROUGHT BACK

The radio interference which "has been found" on several occasions, only to show up immediately afterwards, has been more bothersome than ever, and is growing in intensity, which has resulted in an appeal being made to the city council to make an investigation.

Supt. Mahin states that it is not the fault of the city, but is attributed to the high tension line of the traction company, which relays the "juice" to the city lines, making it secondary. A Westinghouse expert was here a few weeks ago and gave that as his opinion.

The council has instructed Supt. Mahin to bring the Westinghouse expert here for the next council meeting so that some kind of steps may be taken to find the trouble, and radio fans will be asked to attend the meeting and hear what he has to say.

A radio club was organized here several months ago, but has failed to function, and the council will now take up the matter.

ners from Glenwood are Donald Brooks, Emma Eganer and Dorothy Jones. In the Gings school, the team consisted of Lucile Haseby, Lilian Galbard and Emma Morgan. Carthage had the following team, Freda McGeorge, Vivian Smith and Gladys Brooks.

The perfect page scored 149, and of the total, five pupils made perfect scores. The lowest was only 83. The individual scores however did not count, as they had to be averaged with the rest of the team for the total percentage.

With the three winning teams, Glenwood in two classes and Richmond in the rural class competing here next Tuesday against the district teams of seven other counties, the winners in that contest will be entitled to take part in the state contest, March 28, with one pupil being chosen to represent the team at the state, instead of the three.

Boosters Reaffirm Allegiance To Rush County and Rushville

found to be exaggerated. We are probably as guilty as other towns. If we want our merchants to keep quality goods and sell as reasonably as any other merchant, we must patronize them."

In conclusion Dr. Kinsinger pointed out that all merchants bought in the same market and could get the same prices, and that overhead was the thing that counted. Rushville merchants can sell cheaper than Indianapolis merchants because their overhead is lower, he said.

Two readings by Mrs. Earl Osborne, following this address, received the heartiest applause.

"The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," represented just the opposite of "The Four Horsemen of Rush County Agriculture," his subject, Donald D. Ball declared. The Four Horsemen of fiction were war, pestilence, famine and death, he pointed out, while the Four Horsemen of Rush county agriculture stand for Peace, Health, Plenty and Life.

When assigned the subject, Mr. Ball said he assumed the Four Horsemen referred to were Argus Wagoner, winner of the yellow corn championship of Indiana; Miss Helen Wissing, winner of the canning championship of Indiana; Chester Meal, producer of the heaviest little ever raised in Indiana; an Paul Glisson, who obtained the highest profit of any poultry farm in the Purdue record work.

He pointed out that the county would not amount to much with one Wagoner, one Meal, one Wissing one Glisson, but that their example was invaluable. He also emphasized that they did not win honors in a year. Wagoner had been breeding corn for fifteen years, Mr. Ball pointed out, and the Orange town

"The fine thing is," he continued, "that there may be more Argus Wagoners, Chester Meals, Helen Wissings and Paul Glissons."

Rush county women are also studying methods of spending farm revenue to best advantage in hygiene, contentment and happiness, he said, alluding to the women's projects in the county.

Roy E. Harrold spoke on the subject, "It's Not Your Town—It's You," calling attention to the necessity of individual effort to carry on the booster program.

Glen Foster, returning secretary, read the financial report, and Omer Trusler, the past president, reviewed the work of the committee. He was introduced as the "ace" of boosters.

Mr. Trusler gave a comprehensive review of the work of the boosters committee, calling attention to the excellent response to the page advertisements to "sell" Rush county to Rush county people. These advertisements, he said, were now being reproduced by a trade journal as an example of what a community can do.

The retiring president told of the immense task of compiling a mailing list to send out literature and of advertisements welcoming the state Christian church convention and state Modern Woodman log rolling. The Woodman program, he pointed out, was printed by the boosters committee and sent throughout the state as a Rushville advertisement.

The speaker called attention to the large road signs on the principal roads leading into Rushville and the unselfish work done by one concern in erecting them. The great mass of work required in preparing the Rush county exhibit at the state fair was described in detail. It attracted more people than any other exhibit, he said, and 2,000 pieces of literature advertising Rush county were passed out daily.

Mr. Trusler explained the work of the vigilance committee and asserted that it saved Rushville business men many times more than they subscribed for the work of the committee.

"The Boosters Committee takes credit for locating the new factory," Mr. Trusler continued. "It was by accident that we discovered that two Rushville citizens were planning to buy a factory in Shelbyville," and he outlined the steps that were taken which culminated in the selling of $75,000 worth of preferred stock.

Mr. Trusler graphically described the mass of details necessary in preparing for the corn show and in urging the early selection of seed corn. The best evidence of the success of the campaign, he pointed out, was the corn show.

"Herschel VanMatre has been an inspiration to the committee," Mr. Trusler asserted. "He has brought plans to us, showing how we could cooperate with the farmers of the county. Why not get behind the boys of Rush county and put them in a special show?" He asked us, and we started the boys' corn club with the idea of having 50 members. Instead we have 125, and we would like to have doubled the number, but could not get the corn. "Argus Wagoner came to the front nobly. He said he was more interested in making the boys of Rush county better farmers than he was in selling the seed corn."

Mr. Trusler explained each boy will receive 15 pounds of corn and at the end of the season will return 60 ears to the committee. This will be used for the next year's corn club and the remainder will be sold at auction. A sponsor for each boy in the corn club will be selected and they will be entertained at a banquet, Mr. Trusler stated. The boys are selected by a committee of five men to finish.

Mr. Trusler read a list of the men from outside the county who bought Rush county land during the year, showing new capital being brought in here.

"I have only touched the high spots," he said in conclusion. "The coming year will prove whether you approve of what has been done."

Paul Allen made a short but inspiring address, pointing to the new industries and new improvements in Rushville during the year, and declaring that they showed confidence in Rushville by coming here.

"Their example in showing they believe in Rushville should encourage us to have more confidence in Rushville," he said. "Let's live in and for Rush county," he added, declaring that the farmers of Rush county were "sold" on Rush county just as the people of Rushville are "sold" on Rushville. He urged that Rushville business men visit events held by farmers, pointing out that the Kiwanis club had always been welcomed.

Warder Wyatt made a brief statement about the proposed new gymnasium for Rushville and said that a definite plan would be announced in a few days.

John A. Tittsworth pointed out that the county had erected no public buildings since 1893, when the court house was built, and that with the high earning power of the county, a community building could be erected and the expense never noticed. He recalled the objections to the court house when it was suggested, but that before it was completed, everybody was for it.

A community building is coming to be an institution in most towns, Mr. Tittsworth declared, and he described how it would serve every township in the county; would provide a place for county gatherings, county athletic contests, meeting rooms for club women, rest rooms, a public auditorium and would be beneficial in many other ways.

Mayor Walter Thomas made a short talk on "Our Streets," declaring that the city council had changed its policy and was adding new material only during the winter and early spring so that it would have a chance to pack. He said he believed the city should adopt a definite street improvement policy and pave a street every one or two years, thus cutting down the cost of upkeep and providing much better streets for the use of Rushville and Rush county people.

"Home Manager-- Purchasing Agent-- Art Director--Wife"

JUST a slim girl, maybe, or a motherly woman with sweet eyes and white hair—but what a responsibility is hers!

She is the active partner in the business of running a home. She buys most of the things which go to make home life happy, healthful and beautiful. Through her slim, safe fingers goes most of the family money.

And wisely and well it is usually spent too—far better than the average man could spend it himself. For women are better purchasing agents than men. They compare prices, weigh values and shop carefully.

They read advertisements regularly. Every day you'll find the wise little home manager searching the advertising columns for news that will add to the comfort, convenience and improvement of her home. You will find the same clever purchasing agent studying the advertisements to find where and when to buy, and what and how to buy most economically. The advertisements, too, tell this responsive art director how she can make her home more beautiful, more individual—the kind of home that a man appreciates but never knows how it is done!

Advertisements are the wise counsellors in the spending of money that the clever housewife heeds daily.

The business of running a home is made easier by reading the advertisements in the afternoon papers.

The Boosters

The Rush county Boosters, have taken stock of their first year as an organization and have decided to carry on.The review of the year's work, presented at the second annual banquet Tuesday night, is impressive indeed and entitles the organization to the sincerest praise of every loyal Rush county citizen.The accomplishments of the boosters are entirely too varied and elaborate to permit of detailed description here. It is enough to know that their work was endorsed last night and that the organization will continue to function as a live and going body always working for the welfare of Rushville and Rush county.Even those not in direct touch with the work of the committee have observed the wonders that have been worked in Rush county during the past year.A new spirit of cooperation, a new confidence in the future and a new desire to see the city and county grow, has been manifest.All the committee needs is the active support of a larger number of men. With the help of those who have not been active during the past year, the coming year can be made to yield much larger returns.

Clothes Emancipation

If women follow the dictates of fashion, they will not be weighed down. Exactly two pounds of raiment will clothe her, a speaker at the Fashion Art League of America convention said. And half of the two pounds will be on her feet.Thus women strive to be emancipated from clothes. In time, they may find even scantier dress more to their liking, but it is doubtful if many women will ever follow fashion that far.Most of them will hesitate about a six-ounce dress for any occasion.
And the rest of the clothing to keep within the two-pound limit would be a two ounce step-in, a one ounce brassiere, a two ounce pair of hose and a five ounce hat.An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, but it takes more than thirty-two ounces to clothe a woman decently.This will undoubtedly be the judge-

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service WriterWASHINGTON — President
Coolidge is, as has oft been observed, a cautious man.
Yet dollars to doughnuts the Coolidge caution will be increased, not relaxed, when he prepares his next public address.For there was in the Coolidge inaugural address one phrase that proper caution would have kept out. It was a good phrase, and as Coolidge meant it it fitted his idea exactly. But for less serious minds it was susceptible of a double interpretation.Discussing American opportunities in relation to the world situation, in his address, the president said:"One great duty that stands out requires us to use our enormous powers to trim the balance of the world."Doubtless the president meant
"trim" in the sense of equalizing or adjusting the stability of the world.But "to trim the balance of the world," in popular understanding, might also mean that we were out to "fleece or short-change the rest of the world."Next to the president's mechanical horse, this slip in phraseology offers the best opening his opponents have had for a bit of "spoofing" at the executive's expense.REPRESENTATIVE FRANK CLARK of Florida, defeated
for re-election, doesn't mind joking a bit about the boost in salaries which Congress voted itself just before it adjourned."The way Congress took this increase," says Clark, "reminds me of an old acquaintance of mine, a heavy drinker, who finally decided to swear off. He hadn't been on the wagon long, however, before he was taken ill—so ill he thought he was certain to die. So he called his wife."

"Mary," he said, 'down in the hall is an old trunk of mine. Down near the bottom is hidden a bottle of good old peach brandy.""Now, Mary, I'm about to die,

and I want you to do this for me.
Get that bottle. Take a glass and pour it about half full. Put a bit of sugar in and a little piece of ice. Stir it up and bring it here.""Then, Mary—no matter what I do or say—make me take it."ONE typical passage-at-arms as a result of the salary boost
was that between Senator
Willis of Ohio, Republican, and Martin Davey, Ohio Democratic
member.Willis was quoted in his home state papers the day after the Senate rushed through the increase as bitterly condemning it.When the measure came up in the House and Davey supported it,
his constituents let out a loud wail. They praised Willis and they lambasted Davey. And they drew the following report on a situation which may be foreseen as one of the issues in the Ohio campaign of 1926:"I THINK the salary increase warranted. No man can pay his campaign expenses and other expenses incident to his position in Congress and maintain his family on a reasonable basis on $7500 salary.""Personally, it costs me several hundred dollars out of my private income for the privilege of serving my district in Congress.""As to Senator Willis' 'courage'
in opposing the increase, and my
'cowardice' in supporting it, Senator Willis did not oppose it, did not make the slightest effort to prevent its passage.""The next day, after the thing
was done, he rushed to the newspapers with a condemnation of the increase.""He fought a valiant fight—in the newspapers—when he knew his remarks could do no harm."FIFTEEN YEARS

(Palladium Sports Editor)

Richmond, Ind., March 18.—Ten players in the Richmond regional tournament stood out clearly above the remainder of the field. There rating is based on performance during regional games, only. Connersville, Shelbyville and Morton produced a player apiece for the all-regional first team and Rushville was good for two.

Miller, of Rushville, was the outstanding backguard in the tournament, there being few short shots made as the direct result of any defective work by him and Lakin, also of the Rush county aggregation, also stood out as peer of all in his position. He is rangy, knows defense and is a good shot to fill the berth at center.

Columbus Shelbyville, Connersville Rushville and Morton each get a player on the second all-regional tournament team.

Schinnerer was the best man for Columbus, filling in at a forward position; Latshaw was Shelbyville's best bet at the other forward position; Kellar drew the assignment to handle the center berth as a player from Connersville; McNamara, of Rushville was the next best floor-guard and Brown, of Morton easily topped backguarding duties on this quintet.

A study of the work of these players during the regional game will disclose the reasons why they are placed in their respective positions on the all-regional quintets.

Rushville's team was the most smooth-working in the tournament. Arbuclle and Newbold form a pair of forwards that was good, but they were excelled by the work of the lads that drew down the all-regional berths.

Rushville's smooth-running combination swept down upon Shelbyville in the final game of the regional tournament and breezed through to a 26 to 23 victory. Shelby sent a thrill into the battle by staging a stellar comeback in the last half that came near upsetting the strong Rush county aggregation, but Rushville's defense was impregnable in the critical periods and a field goal by McNamara along with a few foul tosses sewed-up the fracas.

The tallest players in the tournament were represented on the Rushville team. Miller, backguard and Lakin, center were both athletes that measure over the six-foot mark.

A representative of the Clean City Service System, Mt. Carmel, Ill., appeared before the council, asking permission to place waste paper containers on down town street corners, at no expense to the city, other than the trouble of keeping the containers emptied. Arrangements to this effect will be made, if the contract between the company and city is satisfactory.

Philip Miller was granted permission to move a dwelling from Harrison and Second street, west two blocks in Second street.

Vern Norris was appointed republican member of the canvassing board for the primary election. The appointment was made by Russell Tittsworth, republican city chairman.

Dunkirk—Dunkirk citizens are to honor the late Benjamin E. Bruecht, founder of the American Flint Glassworkers' National union by erecting a memorial to the high school grounds.

Rushville has an even break with all of 'em—the ration is 16 to 1, between Columbus and Shelbyville, and you never can tell who the lone one will be until the final gun Saturday night.

DON'T STOP WITH MARION!

Rushville plays at ten o'clock Friday morning, meeting the lanky bunch from Grant county. They are tough ones, but like any team in Indiana—they can be defeated.

ARE LOOKING AHEAD

George Purcell of Vincennes didn't attend his own regional down at Evansville Saturday, but went up to Kokomo, to look over the Marion team. He returns with word that Marion will be easy picking for Vincennes in that 8:30 game at night. He says Milford, the first opponent for Vincennes, is the hardest of the two. George says Milford has a strong defense, but the defense of Marion can be penetrated—so if that is the case, then the Lions will find those holes.

Marion is dangerous on long shots. Don't let 'em shoot from any place on the floor. Daniels, their back guard, usually comes in for three or four—stop him from shooting.

TO RADIO ALL GAMES

If you can't attend the tournament in on your radio to station WFBM, 268 meters, which will broadcast all games from the press box, play by play, under the arrangements made by the Indianapolis Times.

"Must Have Been Sweet"

NEWCASTLE WANTS LIONS TO BEAT MARION

Rushville meets Marion at 10 o'clock Friday morning. All of Newcastle will be pulling for Rushville. The Lions can win if they play and if they need any tips we will be glad to give them. One thing is certain—Rushville, Murphy will control the tip off, so build your play accordingly—Newcastle Courier.

LET'S KEEP GOING

The Richmond Palladium gave Rushville much favorable comment in their paper, and said the Lions had the smoothest running team in the regional. Did you see their pick of the regional teams, and notice that Rushville fared well.

THAT RUSHVILLE TEAM IS GOING TO PLAY EVEN BETTER BALL IN INDIANAPOLIS THIS WEEK. THEY DON'T INTEND TO STOP WITH MARION EITHER.

Stop This Man Boykin!

Boykin, Marion forward, was without doubt the outstanding basketball player of the Kokomo regional. His speedy dribbling, accurate shooting and passing and fine headwork stamped him as a player who may make a bid for all-state honors if his team backs him up and travels far enough in the state meet.—Kokomo Tribune.

WE THOUGHT IT WAS RICHMOND!

Speaking of Sports, down at Washington says: "It may interest you to know that—H. Booze lives near Bloomington, Ind."

Muncie is envious of the schedules that some teams drew in the state tourney, and picks Kokomo as an example of something easy. Watching the Fools says:

Speaking of "grapes" look what Kokomo's got. The Wildcats meet Connersville in their first game at Indianapolis and tackle either West Point or LaPorte in the second round. Looks like a free ticket to the semi-finals.

To win the State, Muncie has only to defeat in order, Martinsville, Frankfort, Washington and Vincennes. Nice easy assignment.

BUT GEORGE ALWAYS WAS A POOR PICKER

Two others of the "doped" teams to enter the state finals fell by the wayside when Richmond and Newcastle lost out. Truthfully we didn't think that Rushville was the strength in the triangular scrap all of 'em—the ration is 16 to 1, between Columbus and Shelbyville. Connersville's victory over Richmond was a surprise also.—Vincennes Sun.

And Shootin' 'em in the News again warns Vincennes to take Marion seriously in that 8:30 game Friday night.

ONLY FOUR MORE GAMES FOR THE TEAMS TO PLAY IN THE FINALS SATURDAY NIGHT. SOUNDS EASY, DON'T IT?

SPECIAL RATES GALORE!

All kinds of special rates to the big tourney this week. First the traction line offers a rate of $1.25 from Rushville for the round trip, to the fair grounds, by transferring to city cars at the interurban station. Now comes the C. I. & W. railroad with the announcement that a rate of one dollar for the round trip will prevail. Tickets on the steam line are good on all regular trains, commencing Thursday night at 5:45, good returning until Sunday night.

A special train will be operated Friday, leaving Connersville at six o'clock, arriving in Rushville at 6:30, and will go directly to the fair grounds, stopping at the Moon depot, a couple of blocks from the fair grounds. This train returns from the same depot, leaving after the last game Friday night. The steam line charges an additional 36 cents for the transfer to the Moon station, but if a person wants to, they can pay the dollar for the round trip, and take a city car to the fair grounds.

NO MATTER HOW YOU GET THERE, BE THERE!

RUSHVILLE MUST BE REPRESENTED BY A LARGE CROWD TO HELP CHEER THE TEAM ONTO VICTORY. DON'T STOP WITH MARION.

Little Watwright might slip through those big fellows legs from Marion for several baskets. Size won't be everything in that game.

Bob Newbold and Arbuclle at forwards usually work in good shape up against big fellows. Lakin, McNamara and Miller are always on the job when a tight game is in store, and don't think for one minute that Marion won't have to step some.

BE THERE EARLY FRIDAY, AND GET A GOOD SEAT AND MAKE THE LIONS THINK THEY ARE PLAYING BACK AT HOME.

THE FAN'S APPLAUSE

By OTTIS CRAWFORD

By good and careful coaching And playing that was great, The boys are now approaching The Championship of State.

It's the second time in history Our team has had a show But it isn't any mystery, Why they have a chance to go

For lots of skill has been displayed And moral courage too, In every game that has been played The live long winter through.

It's required a lot of training And a lot of playing too, But we've heard no one complaining About the work they had to do.

Some folks are bound to criticize, It will always be the same For they never seem to realize That they're not in the game.

But now despite their prophesy The end is drawing near, And every one can plainly see, They've played good, hall this year.

With only four more games to play, We hope you keep the pace, By winning two games every day Until you've won the race.

Until we hear the whistle blow, And know the game's completed Every fan will say "I know The boys can't be defeated."

"Go to Lions," and show 'em all That you'll uphold your name By playing the kind of basketball That's required to win the game.

Football Pays Its Way

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, March 18.—Football needs no defender. It can stand trial any time on the evidence that can be presented against it. It is the saviour of athletics in education.

Knute Rockne, Notre Dame football coach said recently. Rockne, who is also a member of the faculty at Notre Dame, suggested that critics of football would change their minds about the evils of commercialism if they were permitted to see the financial reports of some of the big universities.

"So much money is needed for other things essential to the educational scheme that it would be impossible to promote any kind of minor athletics or gymnasium work if football didn't pay the bills for all athletics," Rockne said.

Recently a report of the financial committee of Princeton came to hand in which the committee reported that $6,000,000 would be necessary to finance the urgent demands of the university. Some of the needs stressed by the committee were:

OFFICIALS CONCERNED OVER THE NEJDL BILL

Act, as Signed by Governor, Carries An Appropriation of $10,000 For List of Auto Owners

WILL COST AT LEAST $20,000

Indianapolis, Ind., March 18—State officials were concerned today over the administration of the Nejd bill requiring the secretary of state to prepare lists of all automobile owners in the state for the use of sheriffs and police officers.

The act, which has been signed by the governor, carries an appropriation of $10,000 for the preparation of the lists and provides that they shall be distributed at cost.

George Healey, former clerk of the state printing board, estimated that the work would cost at least $20,000 and possibly more.

Secretary of State Schortemeier will ask the attorney general for an opinion as to whether it will be possible to apply the appropriation to the total cost and pay the rest of the expense when the lists have been sold.

PLAN TO ENACT NEW TAX ACT IN 1926

Hoped Reduction Will Amount to $300,000,000 With Possible Maximum Surplus of 25 Per cent

EXPENDITURES TO INCREASE

Chairman Green Said Details of Proposed 1926 Tax Can Not be Planned With any Assurance

By DALE VAN EVERY
Washington, March 18—Though a U. P. Staff Correspondent

further tax reduction of $300,000,000 may be expected next year, from then on Governmental expenditures will increase and further tax cuts prove unlikely if not impossible, it was declared today in statements by the Republican chairmen of the two great financial committees of the house of representatives.

Chairman Green of Iowa of the ways and means committee, said it was planned to enact a new tax act before next year's tax payments fall due and it was hoped the reduction would amount to $300,000,000 with a possible maximum surplus of 25 per cent, the maximum in the original Mellon plan.

Chairman Madden, Illinois of the appropriation committee, announced analysis of recent appropriations showed that in spite of the drastic economy prepared by President Coolidge, governmental expenses must be expected to increase gradually from now on, thus shutting the hope of further tax reductions after the treasury surpluses are taken into account.

Green said the details of the proposed 1926 tax could not be planned with any assurance until the effect of the present act became more apparent.

But he pointed out that there was every right to expect the 1925 fiscal year would end with at least a surplus of $100,000,000 and the 1926 fiscal year with a surplus of approximately $373,000,000.

SHOES for Men and Women

Relief and Princess Pat

STYLE SHOES IN COMFORT SHAPES

A secret of foot beauty and shoe comfort

IN this picture you see one reason why Walk-Over Relief and Walk-Over Princess Pat are such comfortable style shoes—that is correct heel height.

When you lie down and relax, notice that your extended foot takes an easy, natural and comfortable position much the same as in this picture.

When you think of comfortable heel heights, remember this comfortable position of the foot. You can see that heels should not be flat upon the ground—too low—nor should they be too high. Walk-

Over has determined the correct heel height for comfort and you find it in Relief and Princess Pat.

Princess Pat and Relief have heels that are correct—low enough for comfort, and high enough for ankle beauty. Princess Pat is the shoe with the straight inside line that fits the normal foot. Relief is extra-wide across the tread. Both have the famous Walk-Over narrow fitting heel that is as smart as it is comfortable.

You will find these two famous shoes, in many smart styles, here at the Walk-Over store.

Success of Corn Show and Other

Leaders in Farm Work

Recounting the accomplishments of the first year of its existence, the Rush County Boosters' Committee Tuesday night reaffirmed its allegiance to Rushville and Rush county and prepared for even a more energetic effort to advance the interests of Rushville and Rush county during the forthcoming year.

The second annual banquet was held at the Social club and addresses regarding the successes of the committee's activities and plans for the new year were outlined.

Outstanding achievements of the city and county during the year were presented by various speakers as follows:

Locating three new industries in Rushville.

Winning the yellow corn championship of Indiana.

Winning the canning championship of the state.

Attracting new capital to be invested in Rush county land.

Organizing a boys' corn club of 125 members.

Distinction of holding the largest and best county corn show of the year (if not of all time) in Indiana.

Creating a new spirit in Rush county which has caused residents of the county to take stock of their resources.

Placing Rush county before the people of Indiana with an exhibit at the state fair as the largest hog producing county in the nation.

Erecting large signs at edge of Rushville on principal highways.

Making possible the erection of 30 ornamental pedestal lights along the Memorial park boulevard, which will be done this summer.

"If the Boosters committee has accomplished half as much as I think it has, the organization has been well worth while," Hugh E. Mauzy, the new president of the organization, said in opening the after-dinner program. "It has been a pleasure to see many men give freely of their time to the enterprises in which we have been engaged. We need the same spirit on the part of more men."

RADIO TROUBLE TAKEN TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Supt. Mahin of Water and Light
Plant Reports Westinghouse Ex-
pert Blames I. & C. Line

EXPERT TO BE BROUGHT BACK

The radio interference which "has been found" on several occasions, only to show up immediately afterwards, has been more bothersome than ever, and is growing in intensity, which has resulted in an appeal being made to the city council to make an investigation.

Supt. Mahin states that it is not the fault of the city, but is attributed to the high tension line of the traction company, which relays the "juice" to the city lines, making it secondary. A Westinghouse expert was here a few weeks ago and gave that as his opinion.

The council has instructed Supt. Mahin to bring the Westinghouse expert here for the next council meeting so that some kind of steps may be taken to find the trouble, and radio fans will be asked to attend the meeting and hear what he has to say.

A radio club was organized here several months ago, but has failed to function, and the council will now take up the matter.

possibility if this group of men wants to go after it. No community accomplishes anything by marking time. Work and progress are synonymous.

"It would be a fine thing if we could submerge ourselves during the year and work for the common good. The challenge comes to us from the city, the county and neighboring cities that are going ahead. Shall we accept?"

B. P. Miller was given the most enthusiastic applause when he sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold," with Mrs. George Hogsett playing the piano accompaniment, and in response he sang two short boosting songs that pleased the crowd immensely.

Dr. J. B. Kinsinger, who had the subject, "Our Merchants," said that he wished to make it all inclusive, and he did by briefly reviewing the professional, manufacturing and retail interests of Rushville, paying each a warm compliment.

There are doctors in Rushville, he said, who are known not only locally, but throughout the state and nation, and Rushville lawyers will compare favorably with those of larger cities. Dentists, too, he recalled, have won distinction in their profession and all maintain a high standard.

Dr. Kinsinger pointed out that Rushville factories were among the best in the country and he especially alluded to the fact that they always keep their workmen employed. Rushville has one factory, he said, known all over the world, with a market in every country, and another that is the largest of its kind in the United States, if not the world. The factories have a payroll of over a half million dollars, the speaker asserted.

Dr. Kinsinger also praised Rushville merchants, calling attention to the fact that they buy high class merchandise and are most progressive. There are over 200 different classified businesses in Rushville, he said.

"Rushville has the name of being high-priced," he continued, "but a careful investigation will show the highest class goods here. Laymen can't judge the quality of goods and Rushville merchants are trying to educate their patrons to buy good goods because it is economy, not extravagance."

Dr. Kinsinger declared Rushville had some of the finest department stores, hardware stores, clothing stores and other retail establishments to be found in cities of this size. Rushville banking institutions had never lost a single dollar of a depositor's, he said.

"Some things business men must learn," Dr. Kinsinger continued. "They must be loyal to their home town and get acquainted with other merchants and their affairs. Advertisements that have lately been appearing in the metropolitan press regarding out-of-town buying have been checked up and have been

HOPE OF RESCUING 34 ENTOMBED MEN IS GONE

Rescue Squads Forcing Way More

Mine, Find No Signs of Life

ALL ARE BELIEVED DEAD

(By United Press)
Fairmount, W. V., March 18—All hope for the rescue of all the thirty-four men entombed in Bethlehem Company Mine, No. 41, by an explosion was abandoned at noon today after rescue squads had forced their way into the mine for more than a mile without hearing a sound that indicated the presence of life.

Rescue leaders said that if the men were alive it would be likely the squads penetrating the debris would hear tappings.

Denton Mitchell, superintendent of the mine, and R. M. Lambie, chief of West Virginia bureau of mines, announced after a conference, that it was believed all the men had perished in the explosion or had been suffocated by gas following the blast.

Glenwood School Carries off Honors
in Both Grade and High School
Divisions

RICHLAND TOWNSHIP WINS

Three Teams Will Represent Rush
County in District Contest Here
Next Tuesday

Awards in the Music Memory contest for the county schools which participated here Tuesday in the annual contest, were announced today, with the Glenwood school carrying off honors in the grade and high school divisions, and the Richland township school, receiving first placed in the rural division.

The three teams will represent Rush county in the district contest, which will be held here in the court house next Tuesday, and all county winners in the Sixth District will meet here for the contest, with these winners being eligible for state honors.

Five pupils represented each school team, with the three highest grades on each team being given in the complete summary as announced today. The general average of each team gave the standing of the school. In the high school division, Glenwood finished first, with a grade of 133, and Rushville finished second with 129 points. Carthage was third with 121. The perfect number of points for any team was based on 140, and several individuals in the county scored 140, but other team members pulled down the general average.

In the grammar grade contest, Glenwood scored a total of 132 2-3 points, and Gings was second in this with 132, being nosed out by only 2-3 of a point. Carthage was also a close third with 130 points. In this division Gings and Manilla tied for second place, requiring an elimination contest, resulting in favor of Gings.

In the rural division for one and two room schools, Richland won with 129 1-3 points, and Circleville finished second with 122 1-3 points. Freeman was third with 118 points.

The three high winners on each team that placed first second or third are as follows: Glenwood, Elizabeth Murphy, Mary Freeland and Joseph Douthitt; Rushville, Virginia Lucas, Wilma Hunt and Kathleen Hobbs. Carthage, Sharlee Kyser, Ruby McGeorge and Clyde Wells.

In the grammar grades, the winners

ASSESSING REAL ESTATE TEDIOUS

When Appraisal is Completed
Sate Board Experts to Have Mass
of Details

NEW RULES AND REGULATIONS

Appraisal Blanks Make it Necessary to Obtain Full Description
of Property

Assessment of real estate this year, which is now well under way in Rush county, is the most tedious it has ever been for assessors and deputies, due to the rules and regulations that have been laid down by the state board of tax commissioners.

When the appraisal is completed, the state board expects to have a mass of details regarding every piece of real estate in the state of Indiana. The appraisal blanks supplied by the board make it necessary for the assessors to obtain a full description of the property appraised.

Included in this description is to be the size of the land, the material from which the improvements are made, the number of rooms in each house, the size of the room, the type of foundation, the kind of floor, whether or not the house is wired or plumbed and the type of the plumbing and wiring, the time the house was built, and last of all the value of the land and the improvements.

The assessments are to be made in greater detail this year than ever before, according to members of the board. The board expects to have every piece of property assessed at its real value and to have as much information as possible in order that each piece may be assessed at its fair value.

The total valuation of property for taxable purposes is expected to be increased as a result of this year's appraisements. Increases in the property values are expected in the larger cities.

The reappraisal of real estate was ordered for 1926 in an act of the state legislature and every four years thereafter. This was changed to 1925 in a bill which passed the legislature just adjourned.

The board has ordered the reappraisal for this year prior to the action of the legislature on sentiment chiefly from farmers that they were paying too much taxes because their farm values were appraised too highly.

CREATES A GOOD IMPRESSION

Evangelist Eddie Thomas Preaches
First Sermon at M. E. Church

At St. Paul's church last evening the evangelist, Eddie Thomas, held his first meeting in Rushville. He created a very favorable impression. He is an exceptionally fine singer and strong preacher of the gospel.

His text was John 7:28 "The Master is Come and Callesth for Thee." He described his own call to the evangelist work briefly and spoke at length and with great feeling of the call of Evan Roberts, the great Welsh evangelist. The climax of the sermon was in his vivid description of the call and the work of Billy Sunday. No newspaper report can do justice to his sermons, they must be heard. He preaches and sings each evening at 7:30 o'clock.

COUNCIL DECIDES TO EXTEND MAINS

Contracts for Material, Amounting
to About $8,000, Will be Awarded
Thursday Night

OTHER BUSINESS AT MEETING

Street Commissioner Instructed to Improve Harrison Street—Park
Custodian Named

The city council met in regular session Tuesday night, and several business matters came before them, with the definite decision being reached to extend the water mains into the new territory north of Eleventh street, and contracts for the material, reaching about $8,000, will be awarded Thursday night at an adjourned session.

The bids for the materials were received at the last session of the council, and the different kinds of material and prices have been under consideration, and will be finally decided upon at the meeting Thursday. The extension will provide better water supply to the Park Furniture factory, Rushville Furniture factory and the Tompkins-Endres Furniture factory, as well as furnish water to residences not now served.

In addition to the extension, there will be included about a dozen fire hydrants, to provide better fire protection in the factory districts, with pumper hydrants being run west in Eleventh to a point near the Park furniture factory, and the line extended east toward the other factories.

The matter of preparing for the annual summer oiling of the streets, as provided in a levy by taxation, was taken up, and bids on road oil will be received at the next regular meeting, April 7. Not as much oil will be used this summer as in the past, and only those streets needing it, will be treated.

The matter of improving Harrison street was taken up, and the city street commissioner was asked to tear up the street, knocking off the bumps. The street has been neglected because of a paving project was in view, but as this has vanished the city will now start work and put in into shape. Three cars of stone were ordered for the street improvement.

Last night was the time set for receiving bids for the disposal of the fire bell tower, and the real estate upon which the tower is located. Only one bid was received, it being for $75 for the lot, and submitted by John P. Frazee, Jr., but the bid was regarded as too low, and rejected.

Sam Finney presented a petition asking for the city engineer to establish a grade in the alley at the rear of his place of business in Third street, because he is preparing to remodel a barn, and the engineer was ordered to place the necessary grade.

Property owners were again warned by the council to repair sidewalks in front of their property and the campaign started last fall will be followed up within a few weeks. The sidewalks that have been raised by three roots, or broken must be repaired by the property owners, and the street commissioner was instructed to begin his survey and serve notice on the property owners to make the repairs.

The council appointed B. F. Samp-

TO BE TRIED OUT AT ONCE

Non-Interest Bearing Notes Will be Given For Subscriptions to Building Fund

$25,000 WILL BE NEEDED

Notes Will be Redeemed as Fast as Association has Available Funds
For Such Purposes

A definite plan for the erection of a Rushville high school gymnasium was made public today and will be carried out immediately.

It provides for the formation of the Rushville Public School Athletic association, which will accept subscriptions to a building fund, the subscriptions to be represented by non-interest bearing notes which will be paid off with funds derived from athletic contests and other events held in the gymnasium.

The promoters of the project believe that if $25,000 can be raised in this manner, the remainder of the financing can be accomplished and the gymnasium can be built during the coming summer.

Subscriptions will be payable one-fourth at a time and those who pledge money under this sort of an agreement will not be required to make a payment until the association is formed.

Subscription blanks containing the full agreement were being printed this afternoon and the effort to raise the required amount will be started immediately. The terms of the agreement are as follows:

In order to encourage the building of a gymnasium in the city of Rushville, Indiana, I hereby subscribe and promise to pay, the sum of ——— Dollars to the building fund of the Rushville Public School Athletic Association. VAN ORMAN TO OCCUPY STATE HOUSE OFFICES

Indianapolis, Ind., Mar. 18.—Lieutenant Governor F. Harold Van Orman is to occupy permanent headquarters in the state house, it was learned today.

His office is to be located in a room adjacent to the senate chamber where the state board of vocational rehabilitation is now located. As a consequence, the state board is looking for a new location.

The board moved in during the term of Emmett F. Branch's lieutenant-governorship when he sacrificed his office to it. Edgar D. Bush, former lieutenant governor, reserved his office throughout the year.

AWARDS MADE IN MUSIC CONTEST

ners from Glenwood are Donald Brooks, Emma Beaver and Dorothy Ames. In the Gings school, the team consisted of Lucile Haselby, Lillian Galbard and Emma Morgan. Carthage had the following team, Freda McGeorge, Vivian Smith and Gladys Brooks.

The perfect page scored 140, and of the total, five pupils made perfect scores. The lowest was only 83. The individual scores however did not count, as they had to be averaged with the rest of the team for the total percentage.

With the three winning teams, Glenwood in two classes and Richland in the rural class competing here next Tuesday against the district teams of seven other counties, the winners in that contest will be entitled to take part in the state contest, March 28, with one pupil being chosen to represent the team at the state, instead of the three.

In conclusion Dr. Kinsinger pointed out that all merchants bought in the same market and could get the same prices, and that overhead was the thing that counted. Rushville merchants can sell cheaper than Indianapolis merchants because their overhead is lower, he said.

Two readings by Mrs. Earl Osborne, following this address, received the heartiest applause.

"The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," represented just the opposite of "The Four Horsemen of Rush County Agriculture," his subject, Donald D. Ball declared. The Four Horsemen of fiction were war, pestilence, famine and death, he pointed out, while the Four Horsemen of Rush county agriculture stand for Peace, Health, Plenty and Life.

When assigned the subject, Mr. Ball said he assumed the Four Horsemen referred to were Argus Wagoner, winner of the yellow corn championship of Indiana; Miss Helen Wissing, winner of the canning championship of Indiana; Chester

Meal, producer of the heaviest to little ever raised in Indiana; an Paul Glisson, who obtained the highest profit of any poultry farm in the Purdue record work.

He pointed out that the county would not amount to much with one Wagoner, one Meal, one Wissing one Glisson, but that their example was invaluable. He also emphasized that they did not win honors in a year. Wagoner had been breeding ship exhibit at the county show reflected his work.

"The fine thing is," he continued, "that there may be more Argus Wagoners, Chester Meals, Helen Wissings and Paul Glissons."

Rush county women are also studying methods of spending farm revenue to best advantage in raising contentment and happiness, he said, alluding to the women's projects in the county.

Roy E. Harrold spoke on the subject, "It's Not Your Town—It's You," calling attention to the necessity of individual effort to carry on the booster program.

Glen Foster, returning secretary, read the financial report, and Omer Trusler, the past president, reviewed the work of the committee. He was introduced as the "ace" of boosters.

Mr. Trusler gave a comprehensive review of the work of the boosters' committee, calling attention to the excellent response to the page advertisements to "sell" Rush county to Rush county people. These advertisements, he said, were now being reproduced by a trade journal as an example of what a community can do.

The retiring president told of the immense task of compiling a mailing list to send out literature and of advertisements welcoming the state Christian church convention and state Modern Woodman log rolling. The Woodman program, he pointed out, was printed by the boosters committee and sent throughout the state as a Rushville advertisement.

The speaker called attention to the large road signs on the principal roads leading into Rushville and the unsolicited work done by one concern in erecting them. The great mass of work required in preparing the Rush county exhibit at the state fair was described in detail. It attracted more people than any other exhibit, he said, and 2,000 pieces of literature advertising Rush county were passed out daily.

Mr. Trusler explained the work of the vigilance committee and asserted that it saved Rushville business men many times more than they subscribed for the work of the committee.

"The Boosters Committee takes credit for locating the new factory," Mr. Trusler continued. "It was by accident that we discovered that two Rushville citizens were planning to buy a factory in Shelbyville," and he outlined the steps that were taken which culminated in the selling of $75,000 worth of preferred stock.

Mr. Trusler graphically described the mass of details necessary in preparing for the corn show and in urging the early selection of seed corn. The best evidence of the success of the campaign, he pointed out, was the corn show.

"Herschel VanMatre has been an inspiration to the committee," Mr. Trusler asserted. "He has brought plans to us, showing how we could cooperate with the farmers of the county. Why not get behind the boys of Rush county and put them in a special show? He asked us, and we started the boys' corn club with the idea of having 50 members. Instead, we have 125, and we would like to have doubled the

Mr. Trusler explained each boy will receive 15 pounds of corn and at the end of the season will retain 60 ears to the committee. This will be used for the next year's corn club and the remainder will be sold at auction. A sponsor for each boy in the corn club will be selected and they will be entertained at a banquet, Mr. Trusler stated. The boys are selected by a committee of five men township.

Mr. Trusler read a list of the men from outside the county who bought Rush county land during the year, showing new capital being brought in here.

"I have only touched the high spots," he said in conclusion. "The coming year will prove whether you approve of what has been done."

Paul Allen made a short but inspiring address, pointing to the new industries and new improvements in Rushville during the year, and declaring that they showed confidence in Rushville by coming here.

"Their example in showing they believe in Rushville should encourage us to have more confidence in Rushville," he said. "Let's live in and for Rush county," he added, declaring that the farmers of Rush county were "sold" on Rush county just as the people of Rushville are "sold" on Rushville. He urged that Rushville business men visit events held by farmers, pointing out that the Kiwanis club had always been welcomed.

Warder Wyatt made a brief statement about the proposed new gymnasium for Rushville and said that a definite plan would be announced in a few days.

John A. Tinsworth pointed out that the county had erected no public buildings since 1893, when the court house was built, and that with the high earning power of the county, a community building could be erected and the expense never noticed. He recalled the objections to the court house when it was suggested, but that before it was completed, everybody was for it.

A community building is coming to be an institution in most towns, Mr. Tinsworth declared, and he described how it would serve every township in the county; would provide a place for county gatherings, county athletic contests, meeting rooms for club women, rest rooms, a public auditorium and would be beneficial in many other ways.

Mayor Walter Thomas made a short talk on "Our Streets," declaring that the city council had changed its policy and was adding new material only during the winter and early spring so that it would have a chance to pack. He said he believed the city should adopt a definite street improvement policy and pave a street every one or two years, thus cutting down the cost of upkeep and providing much better streets for the use of Rushville and Rush county people.

"Home Manager-- Purchasing Agent-- Art Director--Wife"

JUST a slim girl, maybe, or a motherly woman with sweet eyes and white hair—but what a responsibility is hers!

She is the active partner in the business of running a home. She buys most of the things which go to make home life happy, healthful and beautiful. Through her slim, safe fingers goes most of the family money.

And wisely and well it is usually spent too—far better than the average man could spend it himself. For women are better purchasing agents than men. They compare prices, weigh values and shop carefully.

They read advertisements regularly. Every day you'll find the wise little home manager searching the advertising columns for news that will add to the comfort, convenience and improvement of her home. You will find the same clever purchasing agent studying the advertisements to find where and when to buy, and what and how to buy most economically. The advertisements, too, tell this responsive art director how she can make her home more beautiful, more individual—the kind of home that a man appreciates but never knows how it is done!

Advertisements are the wise counsellors in the spending of money that the clever housewife heeds daily.

The business of running a home is made easier by reading the advertisements in the afternoon papers.

WASHINGTON — President
Coolidge is, as has oft been
observed, a cautious man.
Yet dollars to doughnuts the Coolidge caution will be increased, not relaxed, when he prepares his next public address.For there was in the Coolidge inaugural address one phrase that wonder caution would have kept out. It was a good phrase, and as Coolidge meant it it fitted his idea
exactly. But for less serious
minds it was susceptible of a double interpretation.Discussing American opportunities in relation to the world situation, in his address, the president
said:"One great duty that stands out requires us to use our enormous powers to trim the balance of the world."Doubtless the president meant
"trim" in the sense of equalizing or adjusting the stability of the world.But "to trim the balance of the world," in popular understanding,
might also mean that we were out to "fence or short-change the rest of the world."Next to the president's mechanical horse, this slip in phraseology offers the best opening his opponents have had for a bit of "proofing" at the executive's expense.REPRESENTATIVE FRANK
CLARK of Florida, defeated
for re-election, doesn't mind
joking a bit about the boost in salaries which Congress voted itself just before it adjourned."The way Congress took this increase," says Clark, "reminds me
of an old acquaintance of mine, a heavy drinker, who finally decided to swear off. He hadn't been on the wagon long, however, before he was taken ill—so ill he thought he was certain to die. So he called
his wife."

"Mary," he said, "down in the hall is an old trunk of mine. Down

near the bottom is hidden a bottle of good old peach brandy."
"Now, Mary, I'm about to die,
and I want you to do this for me.
Get that bottle. Take a glass and pour it about half full. Put a bit of sugar in and a little piece of ice. Stir it up and bring it here."
"Then, Mary—no matter what I do or say—make me take it."ONE typical passage at arms as a result of the salary boost
was that between Senator
Willis of Ohio, Republican, and
Martin Davey, Ohio Democratic
member.Willis was quoted in his home
state papers the day after the Senate rushed through the increase as bitterly condemning it.When the measure came up in the House and Davey supported it,
his constituents let out a loud
wail. They praised Willis and they lambasted Davey. And they drew the following retort on a situation which may be foreseen as one of the issues in the Ohio campaign
of 1926:"I THINK the salary increase warranted. No man can pay
his campaign expenses and
other expenses incident to his position in Congress and maintain
his family on a reasonable basis
on $7500 salary."Personally, it costs me several hundred dollars out of my private income for the privilege of serving
my district in Congress."As to Senator Willis' 'courage'
in opposing the increase, and my
'cowardice' in supporting it, Senator Willis did not oppose it, did not make the slightest effort to prevent its passage.The next day, after the thing
was done, he rushed to the newspapers with a condemnation of the increase."He fought a valiant fight—in
the newspapers—when he knew
his remarks could do no harm."FIFTEEN YEARS

Richmond, Ind., March 18—Ten players in the Richmond regional tournament stood out clearly above the remainder of the field. Their rating is based on performance during regional games, only. Connersville, Shelbyville and Morton produced a player apiece for the all-regional first team and Rushville was good for two.

Miller, of Rushville, was the outstanding backguard in the tournament, there being few short shots made as the direct result of any defective work by him and Lakin, also of the Rush county aggregation, also stood out as peer of all in his position. He is rangy, knows defense and is a good shot to fill the berth at center.

Columbus Shelbyville, Connersville Rushville and Morton each get a player on the second all-regional tournament team.

Schinnerer was the best man for Columbus, filling in at a forward position; Latshaw was Shelbyville's best bet at the other forward position; Kellar drew the assignment to handle the center berth as a player from Connersville; McNamara, of Rushville was the next best floor-guard and Brown, of Morton easily topped backguarding duties on this quintet.

A study of the work of these players during the regional game will disclose the reasons why they are placed in their respective positions on the all-regional quintets.

Rushville's team was the most smooth-working in the tournament. Arbuckle and Newbold form a pair of forwards that was good, but they were excelled by the work of the lads that drew down the all-regional berths.

Rushville's smooth-running combination swept down upon Shelbyville in the final game of the regional tournament and breezed through to a 26 to 23 victory. Shelby sent a thrill into the battle by staging a stellar comeback in the last half that came near upsetting the strong Rush county aggregation, but Rushville's defense was impregnable in the critical periods and a field goal by McNamara along with a few foul tosses sewed up the fracas.

The tallest players in the tournament were represented on the Rushville team. Miller, backguard and Lakin, center were both athletes that measure over the six-foot mark.

A representative of the Clean City Service System, Mt. Carmel, Ill., appeared before the council, asking permission to place waste paper containers on down town street corners, at no expense to the city, other than the trouble of keeping the containers emptied. Arrangements to this effect will be made, if the contract between the company and city is satisfactory.

Philip Miller was granted permission to move a dwelling from Harrison and Second street, west two blocks in Second street.

Vern Norris was appointed republican member of the canvassing board for the primary election. The appointment was made by Russell Titsworth, republican city chairman.

Rushville has an even break with all of 'em—the ration is 16 to 1, and you never can tell who the lone one will be until the final gun Saturday night.

DON'T STOP WITH MARION!

Rushville plays at ten o'clock Friday morning, meeting the lanky bunch from Grant county. They are tough ones, but like any team in Indiana—they can be defeated.

ARE LOOKING AHEAD

George Purcell of Vincennes didn't attend this own regional down at Evansville Saturday, but went up to Kokomo, to look over the Marion team. He returns with word that Marion will be easy picking for Vincennes in that 9:30 game at night. He says Milford, the first opponent for Vincennes, is the hardest of the two. George says Milford has a strong defense, but the defense of Marion can be penetrated—so if that is the case, then the Lions will find those holes.

Marion is dangerous on long shots. Don't let 'em shoot from any place on the floor. Daniels, their back guard, usually comes in for three or four—stop him from shooting.

TO RADIO ALL GAMES

If you can't attend the tourney, tune in on your radio to station WFPM, 268 meters, which will broadcast all games from the press box, play by play, under the arrangements made by the Indianapolis Times.

"Must Have Been Sweet" WOULD IT BE RIGHT TO SAY THESE CARMEL BOYS ARE THE "CANDY KIDS"—Washington Herald.

NEWCASTLE WANTS LIONS TO BEAT MARION

Rushville meets Marion at 10 o'clock Friday morning. All of Newcastle will be pulling for Rushville. The Lions can win if they play and if they need any tips we will be glad to give them. One thing is certain—Rushville, Murphy will control the tip off, so build your play accordingly—Newcastle Courier.

LET'S KEEP GOING

The Richmond Palladium gave Rushville much favorable comment in their paper, and said the Lions had the smoothest running team in the regional. Did you see their pick of the regional teams, and notice that Rushville fared well.

THAT RUSHVILLE TEAM IS GOING TO PLAY EVEN BETTER BALL IN INDIANAPOLIS THIS WEEK. THEY DON'T INTEND TO STOP WITH MARION EITHER.

Stop This Man Boykin!

Boykin, Marion forward, was without doubt the outstanding basketball player of the Kokomo regional. His speedy dribbling, accurate shooting and passing and fine headwork stamped him as a player who may make a bid for all-state honors if his team backs him up and travels far enough in the state meet—Kokomo Tribune.

WE THOUGHT IT WAS RICHMOND!

Speaking of Sports, down at Washington says: "It may interest you to know that—H. Booz lives near Bloomington, Ind."

Muncie is envious of the schedules that some teams drew in the state tourney, and picks Kokomo as an example of something easy. Watching the Fools says:

Speaking of "grapes" look what Kokomo's got. The Wildcats meet Connersville in their first game at Indianapolis and tackle either West Point or LaPorte in the second round. Looks like a free ticket to the semi-finals.

To win the State, Muncie has only to defeat in order, Martinsville, Frankfort, Washington and Vincennes. Nice easy assignment.

BUT GEORGE ALWAYS WAS A POOR PICKER

Two others of the "doped" teams to enter the state finals fell by the wayside when Richmond and Newcastle lost out. Truthfully we didn't think that Rushville was the strength in the triangular scrap between Columbus and Shelbyville. Connersville's victory over Richmond was a surprise also.—Vincennes Sun.

And Shootin' 'em in the News again warns Vincennes to take Marion seriously in that 8:30 game Friday night.

ONLY FOUR MORE GAMES FOR THE TEAMS TO PLAY IN THE FINALS SATURDAY NIGHT. SOUNDS EASY, DON'T IT?

SPECIAL RATES GALORE!

All kinds of special rates to the big tourney this week. First the traction line offers a rate of $1.25 from Rushville for the round trip, to the fair grounds, by transferring to city cars at the interurban station. Now comes the C. I. & W. railroad with the announcement that a rate of one dollar for the round trip will prevail. Tickets on the steam line are good on all regular trains, commencing Thursday night at 5:45, good returning until Sunday night.

A special train will be operated Friday, leaving Connersville at six o'clock, arriving in Rushville at 6:30, and will go directly to the fair grounds, stopping at the Monon depot, a couple of blocks from the fair grounds. This train returns from the same depot, leaving after the last game Friday night. The steam line charges an additional 36 cents for the transfer to the Monon station, but if a person wants to, they can pay the dollar for the round trip, and take a city car to the fair grounds.

NO MATTER HOW YOU GET THERE, BE THERE!

RUSHVILLE MUST BE REPRESENTED BY A LARGE CROWD TO HELP CHEER THE TEAM ONTO VICTORY. DON'T STOP WITH MARION.

Little Wainwright might slip through those big fellows legs from Marion for several baskets. Size won't be everything in that game.

Bob Newbold and Arbuckle at forwards usually work in good shape up against big fellows. Lakin, McNamara and Miller are always on the job when a tight game is in store, and don't think for one minute that Marion won't have to step some.

BE THERE EARLY FRIDAY, AND GET A GOOD SEAT AND MAKE THE LIONS THINK THEY ARE PLAYING BACK AT HOME.

THE FAN'S APPLAUSE

By OTTIS CRAWFORD

By good and careful coaching and playing that was great. The boys are now approaching The Championship of State.

It's the second time in history Our team has had a show But it isn't any mystery, Why they have a chance to go

For lots of skill has been displayed And moral courage too, In every game that has been played The live long winter through.

It's required a lot of training And a lot of playing too, But we've heard no one complaining About the work they had to do.

Some folks are bound to criticize, It will always be the same For they never seem to realize That they're not in the game.

But now despite their prophesy The end is drawing near, And every one can plainly see, They've played good ball this year.

With only four more games to play, We hope you keep the pace, By winning two games every day Until you've won the race.

Until we hear the whistle blow, And know the game's completed Every fan will say "I know The boys can't be defeated."

"Go to Lions," and show 'em all That you'll uphold your name By playing the kind of basketball That's required to win the game.

Football Pays Its Way

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, March 18—"Football needs no defender. It can stand trial any time on the evidence that can be presented against it. It is the saviour of athletics in education," Knute Rockne, Notre Dame football coach said recently.

Rockne, who is also a member of the faculty at Notre Dame, suggested that critics of football would change their minds about the evils of commercialism if they were permitted to see the financial reports of some of the big universities.

"So much money is needed for other things essential to the educational scheme that it would be impossible to promote any kind of minor athletics or gymnasium work if football didn't pay the bills for all athletics," Rockne said.

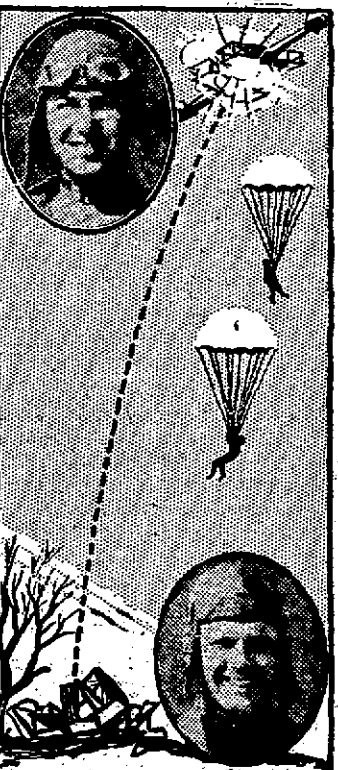

Recently a report of the financial committee of Princeton came to hand in which the committee reported that $6,000,000 would be necessary to finance the urgent demands of the university. Some of the needs stressed by the committee were: Completion of new chapel, $400,000; to supplement Carnegie Pen-

CAROLYN WILSON WINS IN RUSHVILLE CONTEST

Earns Right to Represent High School in County Graceland Event Week of March 30

OLIVE LOGAN HER ALTERNATE

Miss Carolyn Wilson won the Rushville high school oratorical contest at the Graham Annex auditorium this afternoon and earned the right to represent the local school in the county contest, which will be held during the week of Monday, March 30.

Miss Olive Logan was awarded second place by the judges and will serve as her alternate in the county contest. Both spoke on "The Constitution."

The winner in the county contest will represent the county in the district contest. Other schools of the county entered are Carthage, Mansfield, Milroy, and Kings.

The contest, which will result in the selection of the winning national high school orator, is being sponsored in this section by the Indianapolis News.

Donald D. Ball, Glen Foster and Roy E. Harrold acted as judges in the local contest, and while they were bringing in their award, the high school pupils held a "pop" session in preparation for the state finals. Wilbur Walters led the yells and Franklin Miller made a short talk.

Act, as Signed by Governor, Carries An Appropriation of $10,000 For List of Auto Owners

WILL COST AT LEAST $20,000

Indianapolis, Ind., March 18—State officials were concerned today over the administration of the Nejd bill requiring the secretary of state to prepare lists of all automobile owners in the state for the use of sheriffs and police officers.

The act, which has been signed by the governor, carries an appropriation of $10,000 for the preparation of the lists and provides that they shall be distributed at cost.

George Henley, former clerk of the state printing board, estimated that the work would cost at least $20,000 and possibly more.

Secretary of State Schortemeier will ask the attorney general for an opinion as to whether it will be possible to apply the appropriation to the total cost and pay the rest of the expense when the lists have been sold.

PLAN TO ENACT NEW TAX ACT IN 1926

Hoped Reduction Will Amount to $300,000,000 With Possible Maximum Surplus of 25 Per cent

EXPENDITURES TO INCREASE

Chairman Green Said Details of Proposed 1926 Tax Can Not Be Planned With Any Assurance

By DALE VAN EVERY
Washington, March 18—Though a U. P. Staff Correspondent

further tax reduction of $30,000,000 may be expected next year, from then on Governmental expenditures will increase and further tax cuts prove unlikely if not impossible, it was declared today in statements by the Republican chairmen of the two great financial committees of the house of representatives.

Chairman Green of Iowa of the ways and means committee, said it was planned to enact a new tax act before next year's tax payments fall due and it was hoped the reduction would amount to $300,000,000 with a possible maximum surplus of 25 per cent, the maximum in the original Mellon plan.

Chairman Madden, Illinois of the appropriation committee, announced analysis of recent appropriations showed that in spite of the drastic economy prepared by President Coolidge, governmental expenses must be expected to increase gradually from now on, thus shutting the hope of further tax reductions after the treasury surpluses are taken into account.

Green said the details of the proposed 1926 tax could not be planned with any assurance until the effect of the present act became more apparent.

But he pointed out that there was every right to expect the 1925 fiscal year would end with at least a surplus of $100,000,000 and the 1926 fiscal year with a surplus of approximately $373,000,000.

Gambling With Your Motor

You probably wouldn't think of laying down $50.00 or $75.00 and gambling it away at one chance. Yet you do it many times when you continue to press your motor into use when it is badly in need of repair.

A final breakdown may easily cost you that much or more.

Walk-Over SHOES for Men and Women

Relief and Princess Pat
STYLE SHOES IN COMFORT SHAPES

A secret of foot beauty and shoe comfort

IN this picture you see one reason why Walk-Over Relief and Walk-Over Princess Pat are such comfortable style shoes—that is correct heel height.

When you lie down and relax, notice that your extended foot takes an easy, natural and comfortable position much the same as in this picture.

When you think of comfortable heel heights, remember this comfortable position of the foot. You can see that heels should not be flat upon the ground—too low—nor should they be too high. Walk-Over has determined the correct heel height for comfort and you find it in Relief and Princess Pat.

Princess Pat and Relief have heels that are correct—low enough for comfort, and high enough for ankle beauty. Princess Pat is the shoe with the straight inside line that fits the normal foot. Relief is extra-wide across the tread. Both have the famous Walk-Over narrow fitting heel that is as smart as it is comfortable.

You will find these two famous shoes, in many smart styles, here at the Walk-Over store.
